

Lecture Schedule

ENVS 1010

Intro. to Environmental Science

Spring, 2011

Date (Fridays)	Topic
January 14	Introduction
January 21	Vocation: How and Why?
January 28	Interdisciplinary Nature of ENVS Major
February 4	A Motivation for Vocation – Awareness & Environmental Ethics
February 11	Jacob Eldridge (CU, 2009) – M.S in Zoology candidate, W. Kentucky. Univ.
February 18	Accessing Library Resources – Tonya Fawcett, Instructional Serv. Librarian
February 25	Personal Career Assess. – Career Direct , Laura Lintz, Career Services
March 4	No Class - departure for Spring Break; Career Assessment Due
March 11	Spring Break, March 7 to 11
March 18	Guest: Dennis Mishne, Aquatic Biologist, Ohio EPA, Columbus, OH*
March 25	Guest: Lynn Holtzman, Wildlife Biologist/Ethicist, Hocking College
April 1	Guest: Matthew Silveria, Environmental Assistant, Kosmos Cement Co. Also: Group Project Discussion/ Progress
April 8	Laboratory: Field Study of Local Geology and Ecology
April 15	Guest: Mary Klunk, Conservation Manager, Dayton Five Rivers MetroParks
April 22	Easter Break, April 22 to 25
April 29	Final Reports

*You are invited to schedule your lunch with each guest speaker in Chuck's where schedules permit. Details forthcoming for each speaker.

Assignment Due Dates (see "Group Project" Guidelines at <http://www.cedarville.edu/academics/sciencemath/silvius/1010/1010main.htm>)